PACO ELECTS 2006-2007 OFFICERS

The Paralegal Association of Central Ohio (PACO) elected a new Executive Board for 2006-2007 at its monthly General Membership meeting on June 19, 2006.

The following officers were named: President, Amanda Cochran, of Westerville; First Vice President, Rebecca Cain, of Columbus; Second Vice President, Paula Adams, of London; Secretary, Trina Hayes, of Columbus; Treasurer, Tom Bailey, of Westerville; Parliamentarian, Nell Chambers, of Blacklick; Statewide Representative, Barry Kiser, of Gahanna; Editor, Trisha Balthaser, of Grove City; Public Relations Director, Kristin Gordon, of Lancaster; and Student Liaison Coordinator, Natalie Walden, of Gahanna.

The officers officially will be installed to their new positions in July.

PACO, a non-profit organization with nearly 400 members, promotes the paralegal profession, fosters relationships within the legal committee, advocates the Code of Ethics and Professional Responsibility, and endorses the missions of PACO and its partner, the Columbus Bar Association.
